

GEN. FRENCH REACHES FREE STATE CAPITAL

Capture of Bloemfontein by General Roberts Certain.

BOER FORCES FLYING NORTH WITH ARMS AND STORES.

Lord Salisbury Announces in the House of Lords That England Cannot Grant Independence to Either of the Boer Republics—Great Suffering Among the Women and Children at Mafeking—Reinforcements on the Way to Join Gatacre—Next Boer Stand Will Probably Be on the Transvaal Border—Burghers Accused of Using Expanding Bullets.

London, March 13.—[Special Cablegram]—Gen. French leading Gen. Roberts' advance troops, has reached Bloemfontein. His troops have seized two hills near the railway station and commanding the Free State capital.

Roberts, who has his headquarters at Venturien, eighteen miles from Bloemfontein, last night is marching reinforcements to French today.

It is practically certain that today or early tomorrow morning the British troops will enter Bloemfontein.

French met with considerable opposition, but it appears only to have checked him at the gates of Bloemfontein. When Roberts comes within a few miles of the city, he should have no difficulty in driving away the Boers and entering the city.

The following Roberts' dispatch to the war office this morning:

"I directed French, if he had time before dark to seize the railway station at Bloemfontein and secure the rolling stock. At midnight I received from him a report that a considerable opposition he had occupied two hills close to the railway station which commands Bloemfontein. A brother of President Steyn was captured. The telegraph line leading north is cut and the railway is broken up. Am now starting with the 11th cavalry brigade and mounted infantry to re-enforce the cavalry division. Threat of the force will follow as quickly as possible."

Another dispatch from Roberts, dated last night, was made public this morning as follows:

"Our march today was again unopposed. We are now eighteen miles from Bloemfontein. A cavalry division is astride the railway six miles south of Bloemfontein. There are twenty-three wounded and sixty or seventy killed or missing. Col. Unpooley is dead of wounds. The wounds as a rule are more serious than usual, owing to the expanding bullet which is freely used by the Boers."

To Absorb Boer Replicies.

London, March 13.—[Special Cablegram]—In the house of Lords this afternoon Lord Salisbury announced that the government could not consent to the independence of either of the Boer republics.

Suffering At Mafeking.

Mafeking, March 13.—[Special Cablegram]—The suffering among the women and children here is terrible, and many are dying daily. The native population here is starving. The only food in town is horseflesh and broth made from horse forage. All the water is practically contaminated.

Reinforcements for Gatacre.

Stromberg, March 13.—[Special Cablegram]—Reinforcements are being sent to Gatacre to enable him to take the wagon bridge over the Orange river at Bothulic. Gatacre's loss through Boer cannonading from the north bank of the river so far is only 50 wounded.

American Flour Contaminated.

Cape Town, March 13.—[Special Cablegram]—The prize court today ordered the release of the British ship Mashona, seized last December, for carrying contraband of war. The American flour in the Mashona's cargo, however, was condemned.

CONDITIONS ASKED OF BOERS.

Kruger's Proposal for Peace Made Public by Salisbury.

London, March 13.—[Special Cablegram]—The promised developments regarding peace overtures on Kruger and Steyn, were given in the house of lords this afternoon by Salisbury. The premier had received the following telegram from Bloemfontein sent March 5:

"The presidents of the Free States and South African Republic, to the Marquis of Salisbury: 'The blood and tears of thousands who have suffered by this war, and the prospects of moral and economical ruin with which South Africa is now threatened, make it necessary for both belligerents to ask themselves dispassionately for what are we fighting; and whether the aim of each justifies all this appalling misery and devastation?'"

The message then goes on to say that the Boers began the war solely as a defensive measure, as a safeguard to the threatened independence of the republic, and it was continued for this purpose, and to secure this assurance is given that British subjects who are fighting the Boers, will suffer no harm; on these conditions, the message says, the Boers are desirous of seeing peace established.

The message adds that if those conditions are not acceptable the war will be continued.

ANOTHER NIGHT OF GREAT ANXIETY

Democrats of Kentucky Prepared to Resist any Attempt to Arrest Beckham.

Frankfort, Ky., March 13.—[Special Telegram]—Gov. Taylor's militia had another night of anxiety, although it proved quiet. Taylor slept at the executive building and at seven o'clock this morning was escorted to his mansion by soldiers.

The democratic leaders have made complete preparations to resist any attempt to arrest Gov. Beckham. One of Beckham's guards says that if Taylor's militia starts to the Capitol hotel to get Beckham everyone of them will be killed.

The last dual session of the state legislature was held this morning. The republicans adjourned sine die.

The attorney's engaged to ferret out Goebel's murderers claim to have an affidavit from a mountaineer stating that he was present at several meetings at which plans were discussed for putting Goebel out of the way. Those meetings, the alleged affidavit states, were attended by United States Senator De Boe.

Washington, March 13.—[Special Telegram]—H. J. Ormsby, who has spent the last five months in Cuba in an official capacity, said today that yellow fever is now and has been for some time past raging in Havana. The reports of actual deaths from the disease, he says, are not allowed to get out.

A Remarkable Pear Tree.

Charles J. Tinsley of Henrico county, Virginia, has a remarkable and most accommodating pear tree. This is the second year this tree has borne a few days ago Mr. Tinsley gathered the fruit of his tree. He found then that it had produced a pear for each member of his family—thirteen in all—he and his wife and eleven children. The tree had remembered every one. This pear tree did not do little, sneaky things, either. It bore not a pear that weighed less than a pound. The pear for the old man weighed 18 ounces and for the mother 17 ounces.

GREAT BRITAIN WILL NOT ACCEPT MEDIATION FROM PRES. M'KINLEY

In Answer to Kruger's Appeal and the President's Note, Salisbury Replies That the Time for Mediation Has Not Yet Arrived—Good Offices of the United States to Restore Peace Rejected—Germany Declines to Interfere on Kruger's Request.

London, March 13.—[Special Cablegram]—It is learned officially at the foreign office that Mr. Choate presented a note to the British government in behalf of the United States, saying that when England desires mediation the United States is willing to use its good offices. The reply to Mr. Choate's note suggested that this time had not yet arrived.

Hay Had Not Heard at Noon.

Washington, March 13.—[Special Telegram]—Secretary Hay said at noon that he had received no reply from Choate regarding Kruger's appeal to the United States and does not know whether or not Salisbury has been informed of the tender of the good offices of the United States to aid in bringing about peace in South Africa.

REV. MR. SHELDON'S VIEWS AND NEWS

First Issue Is Opened by Prayer by Bishop Vincent.

INDIA FAMINE FEATURE

Calls on America to Aid the Fifty Million Starving in British India.

"Militarism," and "Prohibition" Are Also Given Places of Honor on the First Page—War Is Called a Disease Epidemic in All Latitudes—Prohibition in Kansas and Charity for Colorado Consumptives—The Strict Rules for Sheldon's Newspaper.

A Morning Prayer

Written by Bishop Vincent and printed at the top of the first column of the first page of Mr. Sheldon's newspaper.

"I will try this day to live a simple, sincere, serene life; repelling every thought of discontent, self-seeking and anxiety; cultivating magnanimity, self-control and the habit of silence; practicing economy, cheerfulness and helpfulness. And as I cannot in my own strength do this, or even with a hope of success, I attempt it, I look to Thee, O Lord, my Father in Jesus Christ, my Savior, and ask for the gift of the Holy Spirit."

Topeka, Kan., March 13.—"May God bless the use of this paper to the glory of His kingdom on earth."

With this supplication Rev. Charles M. Sheldon concludes his announcement to the world of the first issue of the Christian daily paper, which left the ing the South African conflict is told in the head, which is: "The war spirit."

"A physician diagnosis it as military fever." "A disease epidemic in all latitudes—its causes, dangers and cures."

Third, Kansas Prohibition

In the next place of honor, the third column, is a "story" with which Kansas readers are somewhat familiar. Under this heading is a column and a half symposium on the Kansas prohibitory law, made up of brief statements from politicians and educators of the state, all maintaining that the law has proved a great success.

Fourth, Colorado Charity

The fourth head on the first page exploits an article which has no apparent news interest, but the Rev. M. Sheldon is not wedded to news as the world has learned to understand it. The article under this heading is in the form of a letter to Mr. Sheldon from the Y. M. C. A. of Colorado, appealing to the Christian people of the country to establish a home for consumptives at Denver.

Fifth, Liquor Evil Again

Buried on the first page is a "story" which links the liquor evil with the industrial problem, the head being: "The Cry for Work. The Answer the Saloon Makes to it."

Will Make Profit of $70,000

The Capital begins with a subscription list of 330,000, and street sales in the larger cities are expected to bring the total to 500,000. An expert has estimated that the total receipts will approximate $100,000, including advertising, and that the expenses will reach $30,000 for the week.

What will be done with the profit of $70,000 only the Capital publishers and Mr. Sheldon can say, and they have not yet decided.

Rules for Sheldon's Paper

Mr. Sheldon gave out his rules, which follow:

"No theatrical news whatever."

"No pugilism or wrestling; only the cleanest kind of sporting news."

"In crime no details of the horrors, but only the bare facts with amplifications of the cause and the lessons which their causes convey."

"Politics from a purely non-partisan standpoint, locally and editorially."

"No scandals and nothing which in the remotest degree is of a scandalous nature."

"No slang, not even that which is considered permissible by the average newspaper."

Mr. Sheldon illustrated this last rule by barring the most unobjectionable piece of slang he could think of, the abbreviation "Pops" as applied to Populists. This was the only rule taken with bad grace. Most of the Capital men are Republicans, and they consider the privilege of calling Populists "Pops" to be one of their rights.

There were instructions about interviewing. All interviews must be written and the "copy" submitted to the interviewed person for approval before publication. Also persons refusing to be interviewed must be politely left in peace.

ROSE FOR MAYOR, SOMERS FOR JUDGE

Democratic City Convention in Milwaukee Was Controlled by the Machine.

Milwaukee, Wis., March 13.—Two democratic conventions were held here yesterday afternoon—city and judicial. At the city convention the present city officers were renominated without the semblance of a struggle, the machine of Mayor Rose moving without a hitch. Mayor Rose, Treasurer Bollow and Comptroller Wolf make up the city ticket. A platform arranged under the supervision of Mayor Rose was adopted by acclamation. It defends the ordinance granted to the Milwaukee Street Railway company and the Chicago platform.

In the judicial convention there was a bitter fight, which resulted in the nomination for county judge of Peter J. Somers, who came out at the last moment as a candidate against Joseph G. Donnelly.

CORBETT PROVES AN ALIBI AT RACINE

Witnesses Testify That He Could Not Have Shot Mr. and Mrs. Cheney as Charged.

Racine, Wis., March 13.—In the Corbett trial yesterday eight witnesses for defense testified that Corbett called at their houses on the morning of Dec. 6, when the shooting took place and was canvassing among them for crayon pictures at 10 o'clock, the time Mr. and Mrs. Cheney were shot in another part of the city. The cross examination did not confuse them.

Corbett testified in his own behalf in the afternoon. He told a straight story which apparently influenced the jury in his favor. He gave an account of himself from the time he came to the city up to the present time. Attorney Lukes for the state, endeavored to break down his testimony but was unable to do so. Frank Marshall, a reputable citizen, testified to seeing a man answering the description of the assailant run past his residence on the morning of the shooting.

Second, War a Disease.

The second head on the first page deals with the department that in worldly newspapers would be called "Transvaal War." Mr. Sheldon's method of hand-

MANY CHANGES IN PORTO RICO BILL

Prospects for an Agreement in the Senate Over the Tariff.

TO DROP EXPORT DUTY

The New Measure Will Admit American Goods to the Island Free.

Present Intention Is To Radically

Change and Modify the Foraker Bill Now Pending, and Then to Pass It—No Delegate to Congress From the Island—Chances Good That the Bill as Amended Will Pass.

Washington, March 13.—After stewing over the matter for a couple of days or so the republican senators have pretty nearly reached an agreement over the Porto Rican bill, which is a temporary triumph for Senator Foraker, although it is more than likely he will be cheated out of his victory by means of a Conference committee, appointed with the express purpose of knocking out his civil government bill.

The latest compromise and the one most likely to go through the senate adopts all of the Foraker government scheme except that for a delegate in congress. Some thirty or forty amendments are made, but they are mostly on matters of phraseology. The levying of a duty on articles imported into the island of Porto Rico from the United States is abandoned entirely.

The house provision of 15 per cent of the Dingley rate on the products of Porto Rico coming into the United States is retained, with the understanding that a vote is to be allowed on a proposition to reduce the rate still further.

Drop Duty on Goods from Porto Rico.

So far as regards the tariff situation, the compromise proposes to drop the duty on goods entering Porto Rico from the United States. This was not from choice but because the friends of the tariff idea have become convinced that tax is unconstitutional. The argument made by Senator Hoar and others that the collection of a duty in Porto Rico on American products is unquestionably a tax on exports, and hence clearly unconstitutional, was freely accepted by senators who hold that Porto Rico was not under the constitution.

Their theory is that as the constitution prevents the levying of an export tax on goods sent from any state the duty collected in Porto Rico is an export tax as much as if it were assessed when the ship left the shores of the United States.

The effect is the same whether the collection is made at the seaboard, on the high seas, or arrival at Porto Rico.

Will Apply to Philippines

The vast importance of this contention will be seen later in the Philippines. If a duty collected in Manila by authority of Congress is an import tax then it will be impossible to maintain the open door there in any way except by absolute free trade to all the world in the Philippines. Thereupon, if the extreme Republican view is sustained by the court, Congress could impose a tariff in the United States against the Philippines, but could not sustain a tariff in the islands against this country.

As this country by our constitution would have to be given free trade in Manila, free trade with the rest of the world would have to follow if the open door policy is followed. This would result in a protection country maintaining a free trade colony.

It is a curious complication, but it is the point of view toward which the senate is drifting, and according to current gossip the open door is gradually drifting into company with the open canal.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Another such company of pantomimists, actors, comedians, singers, dancers and specialists of every description as the one that will appear here in the production at the Myers Grand on Tuesday evening, March 16, of Charles H. Yale's "The Evil Eye, or the Many Merry Mishaps of Nid and the Weird Wonderful Wandering of Nod" is not in existence. Mr. Yale showed the sort of managerial metal he was made of when he so successfully produced "The Devil's Auction" and latterly "The Twelve Temptations." "The Evil Eye" is far and away the best "trick" play so far given. It not only gives everything from comic opera to farce, but it also embraces a number of mechanical effects never before seen. It is full of features of the most unique and peculiar sort and is absolutely devoid of chestnuts and suggestions. It is constructed to please children of all ages.

Joliet, Ill., March 13.—After a long session the coroner's jury in the Gallagher murder case adjourned until Thursday to give State's Attorney Heise more time to make a thorough investigation of the case. It developed that shortly after Mrs. Gallagher killed her husband she told one of her neighbors that she did it to save her children, and that she was willing to go to prison. Since her husband's recent illness, it is said, he had been drinking hard.

The report of the assessment committee, assessing the benefits and damages on the improvements of South Main street was made. The report shows the actual cost to be $2,482.18, of which there is charged to the city from the Third ward fund $280.67, while the individual property owners stand the balance of the expense.

Ald. Rice presented an ordinance entitled "An ordinance providing the manner of electing the city engineer and to fix the salary and define the duties of said officers in the city of Janesville."

The ordinance received its first and second reading.

Ald. Carpenter introduced an order which was adopted instructing the city clerk to draw an order of $81.25 in favor of Perry F. Brown in full of all claims and demands against the city to date upon his filing a release approved by the city attorney.

Ald. Gilkey introduced an order which was adopted relating to the improvement of Clark street, from the easterly side of Main street to the westerly side of Glen Etta in the Third ward, and Court street, from the easterly side of Court street bridge to the intersection of Ruger avenue and Vernon street in the Third ward.

Descendant of Penn.

Gen. Sir William Penn Symons, who died at the hands of the Boers at Dundee, owed his second name to the circumstances that his grandmother was one Agnes Penn, who, according to her memorial tablet, was "a lineal descendant of the excellent William Penn."

Second Time on Earth

No Boils Nor Carbuncles Now—A Good Blood Medicine.

"I became convinced of the merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla when I took it myself as a blood purifier. So, when my husband had boils and carbuncles I urged him to take Hood's and the result was that when he had used but one bottle the boils had nearly all disappeared. He continued the use of the medicine and after taking two bottles he was completely cured, and, as he expressed it, felt as if he was on earth for the second time. He has never had any boils since. We take Hood's as a spring medicine and gladly recommend it." Mrs. A. E. STAYS, Yonkers, N. Y.

Scrofula from Birth.

"I have found Hood's to be the greatest blood purifier I ever took, and I have tried many medicines. I was a sufferer with scrofula from birth. My eyes were so badly affected I would be almost blind for a week at a time. My neck began to swell so that I could not breathe freely. Medicines failed to do me any good until I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. Today I have excellent health and my eyes give me very little trouble. I owe it all to Hood's, which I recommend to all suffering from any disease of the blood." Miss KETTER McGUIRE, Silver Creek, Ky.

That Tired Feeling.

"I cannot say too much for Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for that tired and worn out feeling one has in the spring. As a strength builder and appetite creator it has no equal." Mrs. L. B. WOODARD, 285 Ballou Street, Woonsocket, R. I.

Babbers in a Queer Combat.

A. J. Bryant and C. D. Leggett are a couple of young fellows who have formed a partnership in a barber shop at Cedarville, Mo. In joining forces these young men have entered into an agreement to the effect that the one who first should play at a gambling game or take a drink of liquor must forfeit his share of the property. This contract was duly placed on record, and the lawyers say it is an enforceable one.

ROBERTS NEARLY UP WITH THE BURGHERS

Not Expected British Will Meet With Great Opposition at Bloemfontein.

London, March 13.—Gen. Lord Roberts made a further advance Monday and is now at Ventersvlei, about ten miles from Bloemfontein.

The enemy, 12,000 strong, with eighteen guns, was reported to be posted on a range of kopjes commanding the main road to Bloemfontein, but the British adopted another route, circumventing the defenders.

The correspondent of the Daily News, dated his dispatch Ventersvlei, March 12, 6:05 p. m., says that the British left Ausvogel kop in the morning, and, preceded by the cavalry, marched to Ventersvlei, a distance of about fifteen miles, following the Kaaal spruit. By advancing along the Kaaal spruit Gen. Roberts has again outwitted the Boers, who had entrenched themselves along the Modder river, thinking the British route would be in that direction. Most of the farms along the line of march were deserted.

White flags were flying over the houses. All the belongings worth removing had been taken away. There were evident signs that the inhabitants had left in a great hurry, things being littered about. The commander-in-chief has given strict orders that nothing is to be touched.

It is not expected that the British will meet great opposition in entering Bloemfontein. All the divisions have now joined the main advance. Gen. Roberts' headquarters are at Gregorowski's farm.

A dispatch to the Standard from Ventersvlei says that Gen. Tucker received the submission of several Boers in the course of his advance, the result, presumably, of Gen. Roberts' recent proclamation. A farmer who remained at his homestead says that the burghers may take one more stand against the advance on Bloemfontein, but if they are beaten the occupation of the capital will not be further opposed.

The war office has issued nothing concerning this movement. There is no other news from any of the centers of operation, except a reconnaissance by Gen. Clements on the bank of the Orange river three miles below Norval's point, which disclosed that the Boers were occupying positions there of some strength.

The advances of the two republics in the direction of peace continue to be discussed. There is practically but a single aspect, namely, that of conditions. With the exception of comparatively a small section, the opinion of Great Britain emphatically opposes any settlement other than complete submission. In the house of commons Monday Mr. Balfour promised that the papers respecting the peace proposals would be very shortly submitted, and it is understood that these will be furnished today.

SAYS POWERS' AID WAS ASKED.

French Diplomat Declares Kruger and Steyn Have Asked for Mediation.

Paris, March 13.—A diplomatist told your correspondent today that it was perfectly true that Presidents Kruger and Steyn had communicated with the powers, requesting friendly mediation to stop the war. He said France was unable to assume the office for the reason that the French wishes for Boer success were known in London; hence French intervention would be considered as an unfriendly act, which would do harm instead of good, and possibly involve serious complications, but should the United States or Germany take the initiative, England would be unable to complain, because the kindly feelings of both of these countries toward Great Britain were above suspicion. Moreover, their initiative would be supported by the combined powers for the purpose of stopping useless bloodshed. The diplomatist added that he believed that an understanding actually existed between Great Britain and Germany by the terms of which Emperor William shall appear in the role of pacificator when English military prestige shall have been restored sufficiently. England owes the emperor a debt of gratitude for his action in defeating the plan to get the sultan to reopen the Egyptian question, which will be repaid by England showing magnanimity in her treatment of the conquered republics at Emperor William's request, thereby enabling him to redeem his alleged promise to protect Boer autonomy.

CALLS QUEEN'S ORDER INSULT.

Anna Parnell Tells Irish Soldiers to Dip Shamrock in Ink.

Dublin, March 13.—Miss Anna Parnell, sister of the famous Irish leader, Charles Stewart Parnell, has sent the following letter to the Nationalist newspaper:

"Since the queen, whose Irish soldiers have hitherto been punished if they ventured to sport the shamrock, has now ordered them to wear it as a token of their degradation, it seems to me those Irish who do not wish to be identified with the robber lords of South Africa should take notice of this insult to their little plant, whose very humbleness might have protected it from the queen-empress. I suggest that those who cannot refrain from wearing the shamrock should dip it into ink until the dishonor is wiped out by the final triumph of the Boers or in some other way."

DIED IN A FIRE TRAP.

Fifteen Victims of a Tenement House
Horror at Newark.

Newark, N. J., March 13.—Fifteen persons, a majority of whom were children, were burned to death at a tenement-house at Morris and Fourteenth avenues about 5 o'clock this morning. Thirteen bodies were recovered from the ruins within three hours after the flames had been extinguished. The building was a three-story frame structure, formerly used as a church, but transformed into a tenement-house with small rooms, scarcely 8 by 10 feet in dimensions, opening into narrow hallways on both the second and third floors, forming a veritable fire-trap. This location is in the heart of the Italian district, and the greatest excitement prevails. This feeling has been greatly intensified since 7 o'clock, when it first became known that the fire was of incendiary origin, and within fifteen minutes of the time when this report was first circulated men and women, well-nigh crazed by grief, ran tearing around the streets, looking for the man who was responsible for the frightful tragedy and threatening all sorts of vengeance.

SOLDIERS' HEALTH IMPROVING.

Surgeon General Sternberg Reports Condition of Manila Hospitals.

Washington, March 13.—Surg.-Gen. Sternberg has made public a statement showing the number of sick soldiers in the Manila hospitals as given in the weekly cable reports since Jan. 20. The report is as follows:

Jan. 20, 2,540; Jan. 27, 2,389; Feb. 3, 2,051; Feb. 10, 1,630; Feb. 17, 1,613; Feb. 24, 1,531; March 2, 1,434; March 12, 1,287.

This shows a steady decline in the number of sick within the past seven weeks. Since Jan. 20 there has been a decrease of nearly 50 per cent mainly due to the complete recovery of many of the sick. The report, however, does not cover the sick in the hospitals of northern Luzon and at Hilo. Bubonic plague in Manila has been fully checked, if not conquered.

FINDS NEW COUNTERFEITS.

Bogus Silver Certificates Are Discovered by Secret Service Bureau.

Washington, March 13.—The secret service bureau has discovered two new counterfeit notes, a $5 silver certificate and a $1 silver certificate. The $5 certificate came to light in Sandusky, Ohio, but the makers have not been found. The note is described as follows: Series 1896, check letter B, plate No. 30, Bruce register, Roberts treasurer. The $1 counterfeit is of the series of 1899, check letter C. Lyons, register; Roberts, treasurer. The description of the $5 counterfeit applies in general to this note. The counterfeit was discovered in Cleveland, Ohio.

POISON IN POLITICS.

Chicago, March 13.—Alderman Charles Martin of the Sixth ward says somebody tried to poison him the night of Feb. 27. The alderman is now in Mount Clemens, Mich., receiving treatment. He thinks some political enemy put a deadly drug in his glass of milk while he was talking politics in a saloon out in the Sixth ward. Since that night he has been confined to his bed on several occasions, and for a time it seemed to the doctor who was in attendance that he could not recover.

Alderman Martin suspects that some of his political enemies conspired to drug him so that he would be prevented from attending to his canvass for the primaries. He refused to name the saloon where he was poisoned or the man whom he suspects, but says he will give the matter further attention when he has fully recovered.

DEMOCRATS AT KANSAS CITY.

Kansas City, Mo., March 13.—The subcommittee appointed by the democratic national committee to confer with the local men in charge of the arrangements for the reception of the democratic national convention next July met here today. There are present W. J. Stone of Missouri, J. G. Johnson of Kansas, Judge Adair Wilson of Colorado, D. J. Campau of Michigan, and C. A. Walsh of Iowa. The railroad men promised a rate of one fare for the round trip from all parts of the United States, and said the roads expected to bring here about 150,000 people.

IVORY SOAP PASTE.

In fifteen minutes, with only a cake of Ivory Soap and water, you can make a better cleansing paste than you can buy.

Ivory Soap Paste will take spots from clothing; and will clean carpets, rugs, kid gloves, slippers, patent, enamel, russet leather and canvas shoes, leather belts, painted wood-work and furniture. The special value of Ivory Soap in this form arises from the fact that it can be used with a damp sponge or cloth to cleanse many articles that cannot be washed because they will not stand the free application of water.

DIRECTIONS FOR MAKING.—To one pint of boiling water add one and one-half ounces (one-quarter of the small size cake) of Ivory Soap cut into shavings, boil five minutes after the soap is thoroughly dissolved. Remove from the fire and cool in convenient dishes (not tin). It will keep well in an air-tight glass jar.

STREET CARS IN ENGLAND.

London Decision That Would Cause A Controversy in This Country.

A London magistrate has just made from the bench a statement, which, if it is ever duplicated by a competent court in this city, would or might have consequences terrible even to imagine. It seems that on one of the suburban railways there had been a crowded train. A woman had tried to force her way into a compartment already fully occupied and her efforts had excited a mild protest from one of the passengers already seated. The protesting remarks were taken amiss by the woman's husband, a fight followed and then an arrest of the pugnacious husband. It is not a matter of any consequence whether he or the other man was at fault for the disturbance; what is at least interesting is the fact that the magistrate before whom the case came formally announced that nobody has a right to enter a railway carriage which is already full. Those who take tickets at the starting point, he said, are entitled to seats and tickets taken at intermediate stations are subject to there being room for the holders. If the company issues tickets in excess of the number of seats provided the holders may bring an action for damages, wait for the next train or demand the return of their money. Persons in a carriage which is full have a legal, as well as moral, right to prevent others from endeavoring to enter it and the sooner the public understands this the better, as no one has a right to inconvenience passengers already in their places. Such is the English law, according to this interpreter of it. Patrons of our own elevated and surface cars are not likely even to ask if there is any such law in this country. They are so well habituated to traveling in cruel discomfort that the impulse to make effective protest against it has been lost.

Which is better? To let your house stand idle awhile or spend 25 cents for an ad in our want column and keep your place occupied?

CREMATION IN NORWAY.

Norway has a law dealing with cremation. According to the act every person over 15 years of age can be cremated after death if he or she has made a declaration in the presence of two witnesses. For those under 15 a declaration on the part of the parents is necessary.

PLENTY OF IT.

Lots More Proof Like This, and it is All From Janesville People.

"The proof of the pudding is in the eating of it." If any city or town in the Union has sufficient proof on the following subject it is Janesville. Genuine merit is finding its reward in the hearty endorsement of local citizens. When people right here at home, friends and neighbors of our readers, give a statement like the following for publication, it is proof convincing for the most skeptical. Read this testimony:

Mrs. L. B. Canfield, of 107 Cornelia street, says: "I doctored from time to time for eight or ten years for kidney complaint. I felt fairly well as long as I took medicines, but if I left off I immediately became worse. At one time I had such a severe attack that I came near dying. The pain became so severe that it brought on nervous chills, my finger nails turned purple and I never suffered so much in my life. The medicine I took acted as a stimulant while I used it, and I finally recovered in a measure. During three years I suffered from attacks of headache, dizziness and backache. It was for these reasons, that on learning about Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured them from the People's drug store. They are a splendid remedy. The pain in the region of my kidneys was removed in a short time and since completing the treatment I have felt better generally."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take on substitute.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

565—Belshazzar, the last great Roman general (of the eastern empire), died; born 305.
1651—Birth of Esther Johnson, noted unfortunately as Dean Swift's Stella; died 1732.
1741—Birth of Joseph II, famous emperor of Germany; died 1790.
1807—Cession of Russian America to the United States. The territory is now known as Alaska. Russia acquired it by virtue of the right of discovery. On July 18, 1741, Vitus Berling sighted the mountain range of which St. Elias is the crowning peak. Russian commercial expeditions established traders there. Alaska was explored by a scientific corps sent from the United States to select a route for a Russo-American telegraph. Negotiations for purchase soon followed. The price was $7,200,000.

1871—Junc. Domagatte Wyss, daughter of Lucien Bonaparte, died; born 1801.
1881—Alexander II of Russia assassinated; born 1818; crowned 1856.
1899—Pangasinan, east of Manila, captured by General Wheaton's forces.

ROUTINE AT A CAUCUS

The new election law provides that all voting at caucuses shall be done by ballot, and that caucuses shall be open an hour. The procedure, this year, will therefore be radically different from that of the past. Under the present law, all the candidates are chosen at once—that is, the polls for alderman, supervisor, constable, etc., open and close at the same time. This makes it necessary to either provide as many ballot boxes as there are nominations to be made, or use a "blanket ballot." Such a ballot cannot well be provided, however, as the names of candidates, in many instances, are not presented until the caucus meets. It is therefore decided that the better arrangement is to provide more boxes, using one box for the ballots for alderman, another for the ballots for supervisor, a third for candidates for school commissioner, a fourth for candidates for constables, and a fifth for ballots for delegates. The ballots can then be written or printed as has always been the rule at caucuses, and the voter, as his name is checked on the poll list, can place his ballot in each box one after the other. The law is not specific as to the kind of box used, and, if preferred, a hat may be utilized. The receptacle, however, must be placed in plain sight of the caucus officers, and cannot be moved until the ballot is declared closed.

The voting at all caucuses will begin at 7 o'clock p. m. and the polls will close at 8 o'clock p. m.

The chairman of the ward committee will be the chairman of the caucus in all cases. At the caucuses held last spring the following ward chairmen were appointed:

First Ward—S. B. Heddles.
Second Ward—F. H. Koehlin.
Third Ward—J. L. Bear.
Fourth Ward—F. M. Marzluff.
Fifth Ward—J. W. Scott.

These gentlemen will therefore be the chairmen of the various caucuses, but in their absence, a chairman may be elected at the same time that the secretary and tellers are chosen.

The oath prescribed by law may be administered to the chairman and secretary by any notary public, or justice of the peace, and may be sworn to orally, or in writing.

The chairman and secretary of each ward caucus shall certify the result of such caucus to the chairman of the city committee, who in turn will present the documents to the city convention when he calls the same to order. These certificates thus become the credentials of the various delegates to the city convention. After the convention, the chairman and secretary will certify the result to the city clerk, who will place all the names of candidates upon the official ballot.

It is therefore apparent that caucus officers should take care that all details are looked after in order that there be no mistakes.

Street Commissioner Fredricks has been the busiest man in Janesville for some days past, the sudden melting of the snow having caused much trouble all over town. The commissioner has been equal to the occasion, however, and his work has been done "with neatness and dispatch."

Editor Sheldon refuses to print corset advertisements, but has no scruples as to selling the paper to women who wear them.

Doubless W. J. Bryan felt more or less aggrieved when he learned that Eugene V. Debs had also been nominated for president.

There are two sides to the Porto Rico tariff question, as is shown by the fact that Wisconsin's ten able congressmen all supported the measure. The Badger delegation ranks at the top, and no member is either ignorant, crazy, or heedless, so perhaps, as Captain Sigbee telegraphed from Havana when the Maine was blown up, "judgment should be suspended" until the case is complete.

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT
ON JUNE 26 AND 27

Meeting at West Superior—Two Candidates in the Field For Commander Next Year.

Madison, March 13—June 26 and 27 are the dates finally fixed for the Department encampment G. A. R. at West Superior. A general order will be issued soon giving details of the arrangements. The severe illness of Department Commander Henry Harnden has cast a gloom over the entire department. Gen. Harnden was elected unanimously at the department encampment held in Milwaukee last May.

Only two candidates for department commander have yet developed. The first in the field was David G. James of Richland Center, who has been endorsed by Posts in different parts of the state. William De Steese of Fond du Lac is also in the field, backed by the endorsement of E. A. Brown post of Fond du Lac. Mr. De Steese has also been mentioned for junior vice department commander.

General Orders No. 5, from Commander-in-Chief Albert D. Shaw has just been received. The appointment of President McKinley as special aide-de-camp to the Commander-in-chief is announced. J. S. McDowell of South Centre, Kan., is appointed assistant inspector general.

NEW SOURCE OF GUTTAPERCHA

A German Says the Trees That Produce It Will Grow in the Philippines.

In a monograph, just published in Germany, it is shown that the Philippines are among the few places on earth in which the trees from which guttapercha is procured will flourish. The value of this statement is not to be underrated for two reasons: One is that guttapercha is an indispensable material for the making of submarine cables and golf balls; the other is that the trees in Sumatra and Borneo, from which the chief supply has hitherto been drawn are almost entirely exhausted. The cause of this exhaustion lies in the primitive and destructive methods which were formerly employed for gathering this valuable commodity. The natives who never have any thought for the morrow have ruthlessly cut down whole forests of trees, so that they might scrape the guttapercha, which is nothing but the sap from inside the bark. This wholesale destruction carried on for years has greatly diminished the annual crop, but the discovery that these trees grow and can be successfully cultivated in the Philippines offers hope that a new mine of wealth has been found for American enterprise as soon as the islands are pacified. While the chief use of guttapercha is, of course, for the isolating covering of electric wires, a large quantity is used for the manufacture of golf balls, for which no other material seems so well adapted. Its hardness after having been submitted to the proper pressure, and its toughness make it the only golf ball material yet discovered. The amount of cable laid since 1856 is some 41,853 knots, representing a cost for the cables alone of millions of pounds sterling, and as the prospects are that during the next fifty years many more cables will be required and laid, the demand for guttapercha is almost unlimited. The wealth which guttapercha in the Philippines holds out to American enterprise is in proportion to this demand.

Operations of a Rubbish Destructor.
Shoreditch Vestry (London) has furnished some interesting particulars of the operations of its rubbish destructor. During the past twelve months 26,000 tons of rubbish were burned, of which 92 per cent was domestic refuse, and from the process was developed 1,031,348 board of trade units of electricity for sale to consumers for lighting purposes. In addition to this there was sufficient electricity developed to work the electric fans, lifts and truck of the destructive house and to light it. The clinkers from the furnaces were sold to make concrete, and the surplus steam was used at the public wash houses, and also to heat the baths and free library.

RED CROSS WORK IN MANILA

Trained Women Nurses Have Been Found to Be Indispensable in the Army Hospitals.

BY MILDRED MERRIAM.

The work of the various Red Cross auxiliaries which seemed about to end early in 1899 has been going on all this while, to the surprise of many of the committee who had charge of the work. It is now perhaps as important as ever.

The ladies of the committee recently held a meeting at the residence of the chairman. The amount of money received to date was reported as $5,700, the number of nurses sent to Manila by them as 29 and the work as still in full progress and as efficient as ever.

The government is now prepared to meet its own needs, so that more nurses are not being sent out by the committee. But those already in the field are being eagerly retained for the special service for which their training and large experience especially fit them.

A great part of the money expended was used in procuring delicacies for the sick and forwarding them to the Philippines. Many lives have doubtless been saved, since recovery so often depends on diet alone. Milk, which it is next to impossible to get in Manila, because the cows die of a disease which is very common there, had to be replaced by other foods.

For many months there was an average of 3,500 sick and wounded in the hospitals, and repeatedly as many as a thousand of these were under the care of the committee nurses.

Out of the entire number of nurses sent out only one was not a graduate trained nurse with large hospital training and professional testimonials of highest efficiency. The nurses have entered heartily into their work and rendered faithful and intelligent service.

At the beginning of hostilities the wisdom of sending women nurses by the government while a state of war existed so near Manila was doubtful, but the success of the nurses was proved by the great demand for their

GROUP OF AMERICAN NURSES IN MANILA. services. At one time there were over 1,000 sick and wounded men under the charge of the committee nurses, and they are still reserved for the officers' wards and the most serious cases. All now in the field have agreed to remain in the service until June 1, 1900, and the committee has decided to make every effort to keep the work up to its full efficiency till that date.

The greatest care was taken by the committee to properly house the nurses so that they would not suffer from their confined work and the deleterious effects of the climate. The best results have followed, and a nurse has been very rarely incapacitated by illness.

From the time the first nurses started on the transport Grant they have been far from idle. Five hundred and fifty-two cases were cared for on that trip, together with a like number on the other transports. After their arrival in Manila the rush was simply continuous, and until the arrival of the Sheridan they had not a moment to themselves between dispensing Red Cross supplies and answering emergency calls to officers' wives who were sick in their own homes. It was go, go, go, from early morning to late at night, with many night calls besides.

Many letters have been received by grateful officers testifying to the noble work done by the self-sacrificing nurses. In an early letter, dated Sept. 2, speaking of the force as a whole, Colonel Woodhull wrote: "I take opportunity to say, and I am very glad to say it, that the nurses supplied by your association have been of inestimable value. This has depended upon the good quality of the women themselves and upon Miss Henshall's excellent judgment, firmness and executive ability. When there is an opportunity for civil help, as there is here, I cannot expect to find it better satisfied than you and your associates have done through these excellently selected and well managed representatives."

Miss Henshall was the person selected by the committee for the general charge of all the nurses that they should send out.

The foregoing is cited to show that the doubt entertained by those in power regarding the utility of female nurses in the field has been dispersed by the nurses themselves and that their noble self-sacrifice has been the inspiration of much good from other sources and that they deserve great reward from a grateful government.

HE AMUSES SOCIETY.

Harry Lehr, Who Is a Favorite in New York's Smart Set.

In the old days when royal persons wished to be amused they called in the court jester. But jesters are no longer in fashion. The desire to be amused however, is just as strong as ever. So there is Harry Lehr.

If you read much about the doings of New York's smart set, and there is much entertainment in such reading, you have heard a great deal about this Harry Lehr of late. He is a personage, just as the court jesters were personages. Although he wears no motley, he furnishes amusement for the society people. Incidentally he sells champagne, for he is agent for a wine house.

And it is more of a trick to amuse these society men and women than you might imagine. But Harry Lehr seems to know how to do it. It is he who originates the little incidents which make the dinners and receptions unique. He acts as master of ceremonies when Mrs. Oelrichs, Mrs. Fish or Mrs. George Gould entertains her friends.

Baltimore produced Mr. Lehr. He first attracted attention at a big ball. And what do you suppose made his reputation? It was a brilliant achievement. He "dared" several lively young women to play "follow my leader" and then waded, in his shiny dancing pumps and silk stockings, through the basin of a fountain. The ladies followed suit, and the affair was widely talked about. He was hailed as a leader.

HOW SOLDIERS EAT.

Ingenious Substitutes Employed by British Officers in the Field.

When Tommy Atkins is in barracks, he takes his meals in much the same manner as does the ordinary civilian. His mess table sports a tablecloth, and if he is particular he may even have a napkin. But when Tommy gets into khaki and finds himself in the midst of a hot campaign he eats at Cresco. During a forced march meals are served with bewildering irregularity and eaten with no formality at all.

But the British officer, who is apt to be a good deal of a dandy at all times, strives to keep up appearances. Here is a unique picture which shows how he succeeds. It is from a photograph taken in South Africa since the beginning of hostilities.

The illustration shows officers at mess. Cambersome camp kit, including folding tables and that sort of thing, are far in the rear with the slow moving baggage carts. There are not even boxes enough at hand to make an apology for a table. But the company servants have been equal to the occasion, and this is how they have improvised a table.

A narrow two foot trench has been dug in the shape of a parallelogram. The earth or sand has been carefully thrown aside. On the grass in the center the handy orderlies have "set the table." There are no chairs to pull up, but the officers can stick their boots down in the trench and be quite comfortable nevertheless. The tablecloth is of nature's own weaving. It doesn't need to be laundered. After the meal it can be brushed off with a broom. If it becomes irreparably soiled, why, there are many square miles of similar material to be had for the taking. The device is an ingenious one. It will be appreciated by campers who can never learn to sit cross legged like the Hindoos or Japanese.

WOMAN'S PART IN WARTIME.

Titled English Ladies Who Are Home Guard Colonels and Boer Wives Who Can Shoot.

BY GLADYS LA TOUR.

The great interest that every nation is taking in the strife between the Boers and the British has been participated in by the women as well as the men. American women might well take example from the women of the Boers. Learn to shoot. How many of us who are proficient in the arts of tennis, teas and golf could handle a gun in self defense? If necessity should demand, what woman of your or my acquaintance could hold her home against hostile attack?

It is a generally accepted theory that in civilized countries these duties do not fall to the part of the gentler sex, but who can foresee the events that might make the knowledge of the handling of a gun of extreme value?

Abroad one of the most picturesque features of the home guard is the woman colonel. In England and Germany especially the woman colonel is a well established institution, but she is wholly for ornament. She is for dress parade only, but on that occasion she does display a pretty costume and ride her horse gracefully. Though her position has been one of ornament only, it has been a royal favor that has conferred upon her the compliments of a regiment.

The lady colonel is supposed to take a personal interest in her regiment. Once in awhile she visits the officers at mess, and she receives their wives at certain regular intervals. In England the Duchess of Connaught, as colonel of the Eighth Buffs, is considered the handsomest of the women commanders.

The empress of Germany is an excellent horsewoman, and her maneuvers on the field are always well performed. She is colonel of the Sleswick-Holstein fusilier regiment. She always appears on parade wearing the uniform of her colonels.

The Grand Duchess of Hesse takes great delight in her regiment and visits it constantly when it is on field duty.

DUCHESS OF CONNAUGHT IN COLONEL'S UNIFORM.

The severe style of military dress is very becoming to her, more so than to the other European court ladies, for she is about the only one of the royal family who can lay claim to the distinction of being really slight.

The hereditary Princess Charlotte of Saxe-Meiningen and the crown princess of Roumania are other popular colonels of the German army. There are now 13 in all. The present German emperor has made the custom of appointing women colonels common. He was the first to appoint foreign princesses colonels of Prussian regiments.

The young queen of the Netherlands was greatly delighted when Emperor William conferred upon her the fifteenth hussars. Her mother, Queen Emma, is colonel of a Prussian regiment. The emperor is particular to make the princesses colonels of those regiments that are connected by tradition to their own countries.

All this only goes to show that the military position occupied by the women of court circles has no actual significance as indicative of ability to lead in the true military sense of the word. There is a marked difference between their soldierly position and that of the Boer women. The one is all show while the other is all utility.

The recent report that President Kruger intended to fill the trenches with women has made the American women feel keenly the unflinching determination of the Transvaal people to maintain their liberty, no matter what the cost. Such a move on the part of Oom Paul would have a tremendous moral effect upon all the nations of the earth, and it shows what confidence the Boer men must place in their women that they will permit them to fight even in such extremes as the present ones.

Thousands upon thousands of English women, mostly society ladies and actresses, are making application at the war office for positions at the front. All want to be nurses or assistant nurses, or anything that will bring them near to the men doing the fighting. Though the war office discounts such as possible ladies going to the front, lots of them start just the same.

GOWNS FOR LENT.

Festal Robes For Those Who Find Sackcloth Unbecoming.

It was Sarah Bernhardt who devised the very effective plan of combining lace and fur, and we all ought to be glad she did, for there is no denying its beauty. It is an odd combination to find a reception gown of all over net bordered with a couple of rows of black fur around the bottom, but one looks twice at such a gown and admires it.

The reception gown illustrated here will show the plan of the combination. The inner dress is of pale blue taffeta and the outer of the figured net. This has the skirt laid in plaits and sewed down to the knees, fitting the skirt rather closely. From there it is left loose to the bottom, which forms a sort of flounce. The waist is swathed across the front and has a simulated bolero, with a tie made of pale blue crepe de chine finished with netted silk fringe of the same color. This scarf or tie is so long that it goes twice around the neck and fills in the entire front like a jabot. These are shown now in a few of the best stores and are sure to become very popular.

I saw a very dainty and girlish dress for a very young lady to wear at one of the penitential parties where girls are expected to forsake all the vanities of the world. This was a white dotted net, very true, with pinhead dots. The underdress was also of white, being taffeta. The skirt was tucked closely lengthwise to about 18 inches from the bottom, and the surplus fell into a full flounce. Above this was a band of rennaissance lace, and above that equidistant were two others all around. The belt was of the same, and the other bands crossed the waist.

The sleeves were merely ruffles and puffs of the net. There was a long scarf of white tulle drawn from the right shoulder to the waist and from there to the knees and fastened in each place with bunches of parma violets and bows of white ribbon. There were bows of this on the shoulders and a lacing of the ribbon around the upper part of the arm tied at the elbow in a pretty bow.

The gloves to wear with this reach to the elbow. The tulle scarf floats loosely after the last bunch of violets. What a sweet and lovely penitential gown! If any girl could not repent of all sorts of little sins of omission and commission in such a gown, she is past hoping for.

I saw two dresses just finished for two young married sisters. These ladies do not keep Lent quite so strictly as some do, and there is to be a grand dinner at the home of one, and that is the reason for the being of the gowns. One is of lemon colored peau de sole, with bunches of wood violets and green stems embroidered upon the skirt and waist. The dress is cut princess shape and draped a little across the front. The neck is cut square, and there are three rows of amber beads sewed around the edge. Below these is a band of sable, and another borders the whole skirt. There are but straps on the shoulders. The long gloves will leave little of the arm to be seen.

The sister's dress is of heavy heliotrope satin duchesse. The skirt is plain save for a rich cascade of butter colored lace down the left side and from there forming a full ruffle all around the bottom and up to a point. There are revers of the same back and front at the shoulders and placed so that they come to a double point on the top of the shoulder, forming a sort of sleeve.

The dress is low on the neck. The waist is swathed to the left side and has a small standing bow of ribbon of the same shade in front. The lace drapes across the front of the waist. These two dresses form a most effective combination when beside each other—the one yellow, with purple flowers; the other purple, with yellow lace.

I must mention one more festive gown, and that is one for a young lady. The body of the whole is of exquisite chequer design of vague and indistinct roses and leaves on a blue white ground. The low waist is slightly puffed and has a pointed belt of black velvet. There is a band of wide white rennaissance lace across the bust and drawn over the shoulders for sleeves. This part, however, has a pulling of pink chiffon under it. There are four quite deep ruffles of pink chiffon on the skirt, cut so that they form a sort of point in front and are deeper in the back. Each is edged with a narrow ruche, and the upper one is headed with one. HENRIETTE ROUSSEAU.

Astronomers of Ancient China.

When Nineveh and Babylon were in the splendor of their might men in China were predicting eclipses, making catalogues and giving names to the stars. But Nineveh and Babylon were mere mounds of earth and rubbish when China was great, and to this date the civilization and life of the empire is the wonder of the world.

SHEEP'S TONGUES AU GRATIN.—First stir until tender, then peel them and trim closely. Provide for your sauce three or four fat bits of lard and two of a turkey's tail and pound them into a steppan with a little oil, salt, pepper and a dash of thyme. If you make use of a steppan, pour the sauce into the dish, season with a little salt and pepper and a dash of thyme, and set your tongue in and keep it steamed over a boiling dish of charcoal with cover on, as soon as it is almost dry, then pour in a little gravy, with the juice of a lemon or an orange and serve with a sprig of the minced parsley. If you use a steppan, lay the tongues smooth in the pan and put your gravy over them as directed before.—The English Recipe.

WHAT DO THE CHILDREN DRINK?

Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more GRAIN-O you give the children, the more health and vigor they will have. GRAIN-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grains of coffee but costs about 1/2 as much. All grocers sell it. See and try.

LEAVES DETROIT WITHOUT ACCEPTING

REV. E. H. PENCE WANTS MORE TIME TO CONSIDER.

Returned Home Last Evening—Large Audiences That Crowded the Detroit Edifice Greeted Him Both Morning and Evening—Will Probably Decide This Week.

Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Pence returned home last evening from Detroit, Mich.,
where on Sunday Rev. Mr. Pence preached both morning and evening from the pulpit of the Fort Street Presbyterian church.

Rev. Mr. Pence left Detroit without giving members of that church any definite information as to whether or not he would accept the position tendered him. He informed them that he would first be obliged to return to Janesville and talk the matter over with the members of his church. His definite answer they could expect within the next few days.

When Rev. Mr. Pence entered the pulpit of the Detroit church Sunday morning he faced one of the largest church audiences that he ever appeared before; every seat was occupied long before the opening of services, and several were obliged to stand.

There are fourteen other Presbyterian churches in Detroit. The Detroit papers noticed the local divine's coming in several articles that were each a column in length. Two papers printed excellent pictures of him.

At the close of the morning and evening service, members of the church met Rev. and Mrs. Pence, extending to them a most cordial reception.

PENCE PLEASED DETROIT PEOPLE

Newspapers of That City Pay Him Many Compliments

The Detroit daily newspapers made extended reports of the first sermon preached by the Rev. E. H. Pence at the Fort Street church last Sunday.
Among others The Tribune, the leading paper, has the following to say:

When Rev. E. H. Pence arose yesterday morning in the Fort Street Presbyterian church to deliver his first sermon to his new parishioners, he faced a fine, large congregation.

As he arose in the pulpit, he showed a figure inclined to be spare, but not noticeably so, surmounted by a head quite of the dome-like character. The features were plain and well marked, and the forehead well proportioned to the remainder of his face. Nevertheless, it was obvious that the preacher carries a big cerebrum—there is lots of space in his skull above the ears.

He Won His Congregation

Rev. Edward Pence had not spoken a half dozen words of his sermon before the people realized that there stood before them a man of wholly different type from John Reid. His voice without effort penetrated to the remotest corner of the edifice, due partly to the distinctness of his enunciation. He was to preach on a "Threefold Kingdom."
It was the old topic of Christ as the great central fact of all the ages, but there was a difference, an originality about it. It sounded new, it came at the people in a new way.

There was an explicitness about his ideas that drove them home to the people, nothing beyond the range of any listener's understanding, but nothing unworthy the thought of the ablest.

As the sermon proceeded, the sense of satisfaction with the new minister grew. There was a precision in his ideas, there was a certain elegance in his diction, not so noticeable as to detract from the native force of his thought, his manner was easy, his movements few, but always appropriate and graceful. His words came fluently, but not too rapidly, and before it was over the consciousness was driven home that the new minister was entitled to be called a pulpit orator. Not of the florid type, not of the ranting, extravagant type, but one of those finished gentlemen who make the word and action suit the thought, and are capable of elevated sentiment and picturesque illustration, as well as of incisive reasoning. A man who can bring moisture to the eyes as readily, but not more readily than he use rapier-pointed logic.

Expressions of Satisfaction

After the sermon several persons were united with the church and a communion service followed. When it was all done the expressions of satisfaction from the people who had less than two hours before been so coldly curious were open and hearty. The congregation of the Fort Street Presbyterian church is well pleased with the initial appearance of its new pastor.

Rev. Edward H. Pence was first brought to the attention of the committee of the Fort Street Presbyterian church through Rev. Dr. Stevenson, president of the McCormick Theological seminary of Chicago. Mr. Pence is a graduate of that institution. Dr.
Stevenson said of Mr. Pence that he was one of the coming men of the church, and a leading figure in the synod of Wisconsin.

It is believed that Mrs. Pence will be as welcome an addition to the Fort Street church as her husband. They were in college together. Mr. and Mrs.
Pence, and took their degrees together about nine years ago. Mrs. Pence is not only a cultured woman, and possessed of fine musical talents, but is also a woman of most attractive personality, making a charming appearance in society.

it one hour before using and keep on ice until ready to broil. Remove the tomalley (the liver of the lobster, which may be recognized by its greenish color; it is also known as the silver throat); also the coral and the stomach (sometimes called the tail). Mix the coral with capers and green peas in equal parts, and fill down the cavity made by taking the coral out. Over a live fire place the lobster split side down on a fine broiler. Brown three minutes; turn and broil until done, about ten minutes, or the shell side. Serve with drawn butter and sliced lemon.

FLAMES DESTROY VALUABLE PROPERTY

FIFTY TONS BAILED HAY AND $1,500 BARN.

Property of Reilly Brothers of the Town of Bradford—Amount of Insurance—Unknown—Conflagration
Took Place Last Night—Live Stock Was Saved.

Fire during the night destroyed the large barn on Reilly Brothers farm in the town of Bradford together with fifty tons of baled hay. The barn alone was valued at $1,500.

Farmers who were in the city today did not know of the amount of insurance if any.

How the fire started is a mystery.
When the flames were first discovered they had made much headway. Considerable live stock was in the barn but all was rescued.

The destroyed barn was a model one and was but recently erected.

JENNIE HEMSTOCK GOES WITHOUT FOOD

For Three Days She Partook of No
Nourishment at the Rock County Jail.

Miss Jennie Hemstock, the domestic who is now serving a three months' sentence in the Rock county jail for having committed robbery at the J. M.
Bostwick residence has been ill since her confinement in jail. She is suffering with nervous prostration and for three days was unable to eat.

The jail officials have done all in their power to comfort her and have even taken to her cell special prepared dainty dishes.

Several young men about town are raising a purse containing sufficient cash to pay the fifty dollar fine of Miss Hem-stock. The prisoner is now in jail in default of the payment of this fine. It is said one half of the needed cash has already been raised and that the young men in charge are striving hard to raise the balance.

From Harvard, Illinois, a letter was received in the city addressed to Miss Jennie Hemstock, who is now in jail on the charge of larceny from the residence of J. M. Bostwick. The writer does not sign his name but states that a reply may be sent to lock box 5 at Harvard.

The writer stated that he is a widower and that he would like to have Miss Hemstock move to Harvard and keep house for him. He further states that he is a "responsible and respectable citizen."

COMMENCE WORK ON METALLIC LINE

From Janesville to Madison by the Way of Edgerton and Stoughton—Wisconsin Telephone Co.

Last evening a large gang of men arrived in this city from Kenosha, as employees of the Wisconsin Telephone company. This morning they commenced the stringing of a new upper metallic line from the main office in this city to Madison.

The new line when completed will make the third metallic line between Janesville and Madison.

The line now under construction will run via Edgerton and Stoughton. Forman Charles Jackson of Racine, is in charge of the work, which will be rushed to completion, as the company will use poles already placed in position.

The Wisconsin company is also contemplating much other work in this city and vicinity; and for several days the workmen will make Janesville their headquarters.

BETTER MARKET AT MILTON

That Is Why Farmers Pass Through Janesville With Their Hogs.

Several farmers residing south of this city in the town of La Prairie drove through Janesville yesterday on their way to Milton with several wagons heavily loaded with live hogs. In the afternoon these farmers returned to town with empty wagons. They claim that live stock buyers at Milton are paying higher prices than are being paid in Janesville and that the difference in price is such that they are only too willing to make the long drive.

LOCAL SHOEMAKERS MAY FORM UNION

Meeting Called For That Purpose to be Held This Evening at the Armory.

This evening at the Armory a meeting has been called for the purpose of bringing together local shoemakers for the purpose of forming a union.

The greater portion of those most liable to join such a union are employes of the F. M. Marzluft & Company shoe factory. Here in the neighborhood of about one hundred hands are given employment. About one-half of these are girls.

A prominent agitator of the question said today: "There is no dissatisfaction anywhere. We merely thought if we could form a shoemakers union in Janesville it would be for the best interests of all concerned. Such a union could have a strong membership here and there is no reason why one should not be formed."

A BAR TO THE TARIFF BILL.

Foraker Stands in the Way of the Puerto Rican Plans.

HE THREATENS A SPLIT.

Will Be Division in Senate Unless Scheme Is Abandoned—Steering Committee Urges a Conference of Republicans in the Hope of a Settlement.

Washington, March 13.—The fate of the Puerto Rican tariff bill has not yet been decided, but it is causing senators to ignore everything else to study the situation and a way to change it for the better. Senators Aldrich, Platt, and Teller, who intended to leave Washington for Cuba Wednesday, have concluded not to go until an agreement is reached among republicans as to what kind of bill shall be passed. The question is so engrossing that it has passed over the heads of the steering committee to almost every member of the republican majority in the senate. They are all discussing it, and their conferences have been held in the cloak-room, in committee-rooms and in the senate.

Senator Foraker, chairman of the committee on Puerto Rico, has held conferences with other senators without regard to the steering committee. He has made it plain to others on the floor that the plan of Senators Aldrich, Platt of Connecticut, and Spooner of Wisconsin to drop the civil government bill and add the tariff provision to the appropriation bill must be abandoned, or there will be a division, sharp and well defined, in the senate. If the scheming to that end continues he will change his bill so that it will provide for the organization of a territorial government in Puerto Rico with absolute freedom of trade between the island and the United States, and those who would drop the government bill realize that Foraker would have the country with him on that proposition.

The president advised several senators not to try to defeat the civil government bill. He expressed a desire that the Foraker bill should be passed. The president is not satisfied that he can maintain a military government in Puerto Rico much longer and have it meet the requirements. He thinks it advisable to establish a civil government there at the earliest possible date.

The opponents of the Foraker bill fear it will give the people of the island a more liberal government than they are capable of managing. They also fear that if they do not arrange some compromise soon the Foraker bill will be stripped of its tariff feature and have to be passed in that form or left over for the next session of congress, with the republican party chargeable with bad faith toward the island. Senators Aldrich, Platt, and Spooner are anxious for a compromise, and so are Senator Hanna and others who profess to speak for the administration.

The managers are in a greater muddle than ever because they can no longer control the situation. Some of the senators who last week were in favor of passing the tariff bill are now anxious to postpone the whole question, because they do not want to give absolute free trade to the island, and they fear to vote for the tariff because of the revolt against it in their states.

The suggestion is made that the appropriation bill returning to Puerto Rico the $2,000,000 already collected in customs be passed, and all other proposed legislation be referred back to the committee for further consideration. One western senator said this ought to be done, because the debate showed that the senators were not ready to act now without further study of the questions involved.

Members of the senate steering committee are planning for a general conference of all republican senators tonight to consider what shall be done regarding the Puerto Rican bills.

Richard A. Wise was given the seat in the house from the Second district of Virginia in place of William A. Young, democrat. This was the second time he had superseded Mr. Young in such a manner. The vote declaring Wise entitled to the seat was: Yeas, 132; nays, 125.

The urgent deficiency bill, carrying a total of $1,464,580, was passed.

Mr. Rawlins (dem., Utah) addressed the senate on the Philippine question, taking for his text the bill introduced by Mr. Spooner, which he described as "the prologue in the swelling act of the imperial theme."

All of the pension bills on the calendar—eighty-six in number—were passed. The time occupied was forty-five minutes. The Alaska bill was under consideration when the senate adjourned.

LOBBING FOR ARMY BILL.

Carries with it $2,000,000 for State Militia.

Washington, March 13.—The adjutant general of a number of states are in Washington for the conference tomorrow with the militia committee of the house. The meeting is one that will be watched with much interest in National Guard circles throughout the country, inasmuch as it concerns the improvement in the armament of the militia. A bill for this purpose is now pending in the house. In most respects it meets the wishes of the adjutant general and militia officers generally. The measure proposes to appropriate $2,000,000 annually for the purpose of providing arms, ordnance stores, quartermasters' stores and camp equipment for issue to the militia. This appropriation is to be apportioned under the direction of the secretary of war among the several states and territories, according to the number of representatives each is entitled in the federal congress. It is further provided that the purchase or manufacture of arms, ordnance stores, quartermasters' stores and camp equipment for the militia shall be made under the direction of the secretary of war, as such arms stores or equipment are now provided for the use of the regular army. They are to be the property of the United States, but are to be distributed to the different governments and be annually accounted for. The adjutant general, almost without exception, strongly urge the passage of the bill, but equally strong opposition is expected from the regular army, because of the fact that the measure will place the guard on the same footing as the regular army in regard to its equipment and armament.

FLOOD IN ILLINOIS RIVER.

Great Damage to Property in East Ottawa—Water Is Rising.

Ottawa, Ill., March 13.—Whether the Chicago drainage ditch flow has anything to do with it or not is not known here, but this morning the Illinois river is higher than it has been for fifteen years. It is twenty-five feet above low water mark and still rising. It is ordinarily about 400 feet wide just above where the Fox empties into it, but now it is over 3,000, and the lowlands in East Ottawa are under ten feet of water. The water broke through an old channel yesterday and runs from the Illinois over to the Fox, thus completely surrounding the part of the city called East Ottawa, and the extra stream is a quarter of a mile wide. Above the city a mile and a half the ice is blocked and a solid wall of it twenty feet high stretches across the river. Fears are entertained that this will cause trouble should it happen to break and come down with a rush.

Havana, Ill., March 13.—Three hundred families moved out of Sangamon bottom when the Herget levee broke. Considerable stock was swept away by the flood.

Pontiac, Ill., March 13.—The Vermillion river is higher at this point now than it has been for the past fifteen years. Several families have been compelled to move out, and their houses are entirely surrounded by water. If the river continues to rise at this rate it is feared much damage will be done to property.

HENNESSY'S WILL IS FILED.

Dubuque Archbishop Gives the Bulk of His Estate to Church Institutions.

Dubuque, Iowa, March 13.—Archbishop Hennessy's will, written by himself, Jan. 17 last, has been filed. He gives his sister, brother, and two nieces a house each, a nephew and a brother in Ireland $2,500 each, bequeaths $2,000 for masses for himself, and directs that a modest memorial be erected. The remainder of his personal estate, estimated at $250,000, goes to Catholic institutions. He gives the Sisters of the Holy Ghost $50,000 and their home; Nuns of the Visitation their academy and grounds; his successor $50,000 for the archdiocesan theological seminary, overlooking the cathedral, the foundation of which has been laid; German Catholic orphanage $3,000; St. Vincent de Paul society $25,000; proposed House of Good Shepherd $5,000, and $2,500 to the priest of his native parish, Ballagaden, county Limerick, to be spent for three courses at the North American college in Rome. The residue of the estate goes, share and share alike, to the Catholic university, the proposed theological seminary, and the Sisters of the Holy Ghost.

WILL INVESTIGATE THE STRIKE

A National Industrial Commission Will Take Testimony in Chicago.

Washington, March 13.—The industrial commission has completed arrangements for an investigation of the agricultural, manufacturing and commercial industries of the south Atlantic state. A subcommittee is being organized, and will consist of Representatives Lorimer of Chicago, Egan of D. Conger, Andrew S. Harris, Albert Clarke and Vice Chairman Phillips. This subcommittee will visit

Chicago and investigate the labor troubles in that city. They will inquire into the great strike now in progress and will hear the testimony of the strikers and employers. The exact date of their leaving or when they will hold a hearing in Chicago is undecided, but it is thought that the subcommittee will hold a session the latter part of the month.

Train Kills Marrett de Latt.

Wilmington, Ill., March 13.—Marrett de Latt, one of the oldest residents of this city, was killed early Monday by a Chicago & Alton passenger train. The trainmen think it a case of suicide, as the man was lying on the track just around a sharp curve, and had both hands clasped over his head. Both arms were cut off and his head severed from the body. De Latt left a widow and five children.

Gov. Tanner Off for Florida.

Springfield, Ill., March 13.—Gov. Tanner left at midnight for Palm Beach, Fla., accompanied by Mrs. Tanner and maid, the governor's nurse, Dr. L. C. Taylor, the attending physician, and Judge I. N. George Erbes Kills Himself.

Centerville, Ill., March 13.—George Erbes, son of one of the wealthiest German families in this section, shot himself through the head at his home Monday morning. He slept with a revolver under the pillow and the shooting is supposed to have been accidental, as no reason can be assigned for it.

Dynamite on Church Steps.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, March 13.—The police found a package of dynamite on the steps of St. Paul's Methodist church early Monday morning. A detonating cap and partly burned fuse were attached to the package. The theory is that the saloon element is responsible for putting the explosive there as a means of intimidation, because all the churches of the city have been active against the consent of petitions.

You have been in the power house of some great plant of machinery. Did it occur to you that your body was a more wonderful machine?

In the term of a natural life the heart beats three thousand million times and with a pressure of thirteen pounds to the stroke, lifts in that time, half a million tons of blood. What care are you taking of this wonderful machine?

Shortness of breath, buzzing in the ears, dizziness, palpitation of the heart, sleeplessness, stomach trouble, indigestion are only some of the evidences that the machinery is undergoing a strain which sooner or later will break it down. What the lubricant is to the machine of iron, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is to the machinery of flesh and blood. It reduces friction to a minimum and keeps the great organs in proper running order. It does this by healing diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition, and increasing the flow of pure and healthy blood.

"I used ten bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and several vials of his Pleasant Pellets a year ago this spring, and have had no trouble with indigestion since," writes Mr. W. T. Thompson, of Townsend, Broadwater Co., Montana. "Words fail to tell how thankful I am for the relief, as I had suffered so much and it seemed that the doctors could do me no good. I got down in weight to 135 pounds, and was not able to work at all. Now I weigh nearly 160 and can do a day's work on the farm. I have recommended your medicine to several, and shall always have a good word to say for Dr. Pierce and his medicines."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. Use them with the "Discovery" when a pill is required.

THE WIFE OF AGUINALDO.

How the Captive Senora Looks and How She Lives Under Guard in Manila.

BY MARY E. LEONARD.

One of the most interesting women in the Philippines is Senora Aguinaldo. This is not because of her personality, but in consequence of circumstances. Ever since the American army captured 12 barrels filled with her dresses the women of the United States have been curious to know something about the wife of the Filipino leader.

There has been much romantic nonsense printed about Mrs. Aguinaldo. She has been pictured as a strikingly charming young woman, bristling with sentiment and patriotism. But this description is not exactly correct. She has been seen by only a very few American women, and those who have been so fortunate as to obtain an interview with her, while they differ on the details, agree on the main points. They say she is a fat, middle aged woman who is still rather pretty. So that knocks out the romance. But the interest remains, for hers has been a most eventful career.

Just now Senora Aguinaldo is a guest of Uncle Sam. She lives in Manila. Her address, if you are curious to know it, is 11 Calle San Jose, or, as we should English it, 11 St. Joseph street. At the front door of her house stands a brawny American soldier with a gun. Inside, at the head of the stairs, stands another, also with a gun. The senora is under guard. She is a prisoner of war.

Mrs. Aguinaldo was a Christmas gift to the United States. She and her sister, along with three officers of Aguinaldo's staff, and the two daughters

FROM FOREIGN SUCCESSES.

Miss Kussner Returns to America After a Stay in Kimberley.

Miss Amelia Kussner, the celebrated painter of miniatures, is again in this country. She returns after a most successful period of work in Europe. While there she painted the czar of Russia's portrait on ivory. Then she went to South Africa, where she had a commission to execute for Cecil Rhodes. For several weeks she was in Kimberley as the guest of the great South African dictator while she painted his miniature. Even as she worked she learned that the Boers had put a price on his head. She left Kimberley, however, before the town was besieged. Now she is to paint a miniature of Mrs. George Gould with one of the little Goulds.

Miss Kussner is a Chicago girl. She has a beautiful home in that city, but finds little opportunity to live in it.

MISS AMELIA KUSSNER.

Although her reputation is worldwide, she has been known as a painter of miniatures but a few years, for she is still a young woman.

Her first successes were gained in Chicago. About four years ago, although she was being kept busy there, she determined to try her luck in England. When she went abroad, she carried with her a letter of introduction to Mrs. Arthur Paget, and the latter at once used her powerful influence to advance Miss Kussner's interests in the fashionable world.

A PERILOUS TRIP.

"Buffalo" Jones Will Lead an Expedition Into the Far North.

The Canadian government has employed C. J. Jones of Topeka, better known as "Buffalo" Jones, to go on a perilous mission.

He is to lead an expedition into the northwest territory far above the arctic circle for the purpose of securing living specimens of the musk ox and wood buffalo, now almost extinct. Not only will he encounter the rigors of the climate, but he will have to protect himself against the savage and superstitious tribes who inhabit that region and who hold these animals sacred.

Two years ago Jones and a companion set out on a similar expedition. They secured five fine specimens of the musk ox, but almost died of starvation before this was accomplished. Then they met the Yellow Knife Indians, who believe that if the musk ox is taken from their country all other game animals will follow. They took away the oxen and turned Jones and his companion back, threatening them with instant death if they returned. Jones believes that this time he will be successful.

"Buffalo" Jones is well known as the originator of the propaganda in favor of preserving the American bison. Himself a trapper and hunter for years, he greatly deplores the disappearance of this animal from the western plains. He was recently in Washington, at the request of a committee of congress, before which he was called as an expert.

He gave evidence to support a bill which provides for the reservation of a large tract of land in the west, which is unfit for cultivation of any kind. On this it is proposed to place a herd of not less than 100 full blooded American bison and care for them for a sufficient length of time to insure the possession to this country of a considerable number of specimens of this noble animal. The scientists and those members of congress interested in the bill wrote for Jones to consult him about furnishing the animals to stock the reservation and then taking it in charge.

DECEIVED THE BRITISHERS.

How a Woman Adventurer Was Able to Play a High Role in London.

The history of Hon. Elizabeth Harriet Grieve, who flourished in England in 1773-74. Illustrates a favorite method by which the old-time Britishers endeavored to secure snug places. This lady, who said that she was first cousin to Lord North, second cousin to the Duke of Grafton, nearly related to Lady Fitzroy and a personal friend of Lord Gifford and Charles James Fox, drove about London in a handsome chariot, with footmen; her chariot stopped at the doors of great houses; she received great people at her own house, notably Charles James Fox; she also condescended to receive smaller people. The latter gave her large sums of money, in return for which she promised them places. One was to be a clerk in the victualling office, one was to be a court waiter; one was to be clerk in the admiralty; one was to be a "settled tidesman;" another was to have anything that happened to be going. Charles Fox assisted, unwittingly, at spreading the belief in the lady's powers and promises, because he frequently drove to her lodgings, and left his carriage outside for all the world to see. The reason was not friendship, but interest. He, too, received promises. He was at the moment impetuous. The lady promised him a West Indian heiress, with $300,000. He called daily to inquire after his heiress with all the eagerness of a young lover. Alas! the heiress was never visible; she was even reported to be laid up with smallpox. Her visits were so useful to the Hon. Elizabeth that she actually lent him $1,500, a step which naturally made him believe more firmly in the West Indian. Of course, when the expectant men found that there was nothing for them they went to court and saw the magistrate. It came out, on investigation, that the lady was not in any sense honorable; that she was not related to any great people; that her history was a mass of lies, and that she was nothing more than an ex-convict recently returned from Virginia. They kept her in prison for a twelvemonth—the delay is not explained—and then banished her for seven years.

Indians Take to Mineral Water.

Mineral waters have come to take a very prominent place in national beverages, especially in the case of those who are suffering more or less from physical derangements. In this country the Indians practiced bathing in the heated waters and drinking them long before they taught to the whites the benefits of many springs now famous. It is within the memory of many inhabitants of this country how the red man came annually to encamp at Manitou and other healing springs in the Rockies.

The Sick Wish To Get Well.

Some do get well, while others do not. Magnetic Healing will not always cure; people must die some time, but a great many go long before their time. The laws of Nature are broken, and we call the result disease.

Magnetic Treatment

Complies with the laws of Nature and builds up the worn out tissues, and the result is a cure. Magnetism seems to chase away and bear off with it all that upsets the equilibrium of health. It produces harmony and equality.

The Remedies

This science prescribes are always safe, because its pharmacy is of God and rests on the bosom of Nature. There are no harmful drugs to relieve one part of the body and drive disease to some other part. The drugless cure, as demonstrated by Magnetic Healing, is the only natural and safe method.
